Dear David:

On Wednesday, September 25, I went to an MCEP hearing and was represented by Michael Stern of your office. It was a very difficult day, and having Michael there with me made it much easier. He only received my file less than a week prior to this hearing, and he did a thorough, professional and capable presentation on my behalf.

I was so pleased to have him there with me since he was not only totally in charge, but he also was caring and compassionate with me and made sure that I knew exactly what was going to happen and protected me every step of the way.

I've been advised that a positive decision is usually not forthcoming from these hearings. However, Michael's presentation was excellent and he put our case in the best light possible and brought out all of the flaws in the opposition's testimony.

Your firm is fortunate to have this bright, articulate attorney on staff, and any client will be well served having him as their representative. His associate, Ivo Green, was also very capable and was a pleasure to work with.

We'll await the outcome of the MCEP decision and then will decide the best course of action. Thank you for giving this MCEP hearing to Michael. It was an excellent strategy.

I look forward to meeting with you again sometime in the near future

Sincerely,

Karen Mendreshora
